

Annex 7 – Model Clauses for Pre-Assignment of Project Results from Researchers to Universities and Holding Companies

”Definitions are set out in the General Terms for Collaborative Research within FFI”

”The Researcher hereby confirms that he/she has received and read the Agreement and the Project Plan annexed to it, and accepts all contents thereof.”

”The Researcher hereby assigns and transfers to the University/Holding Company all rights to Project Results, including Individual Project Results and shares of Joint Project Results, which according to Swedish law or other legal basis would, whether in whole or in part, be proprietary to the Researcher. Such assignment also signifies a right, where applicable, to change and modify copyrighted work, with the exception of scientific publications, and also a right to forward-assign them.”

”The Researcher hereby undertakes to honor the provisions of the General Terms as regards offering licenses to Background Information, confidentiality and public releases according to what the University/Holding Company has committed to therein.”